

I feel that K-LOVE is a great thing to have in my community.
It helps my wife and I raise our children in the way we feel is right.
If K-LOVE was taken away it would leave a void in our lives that other radio stations could not fill.
K-LOVE is in the public interest because it brings people radio that is encouraging. People can let their children listen with out having to worry about the content.